

Bear Carries Off 3-Year-Old Child Of Soo Towerman

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 8 (P)—A black bear lumbered out of Michigan's north woods yesterday, carried off the little daughter of a forest fire towerman and left her mangled body in a forest thicket.

Minutes after the body of three-year-old Carol Ann Pomrankey was found a quarter-mile from her parents' isolated cabin, an angered posse shot and killed the animal.

The searching party had been frantically called by Carol Ann's mother, 28-year-old Mrs. Arthur Pomrankey, who saw the bear carry off her daughter. Another child, six-year-old Allen, was playing in the cellar.

The scene of the strange tragedy was the Pomrankeys' lonely cabin at the Mission Hill fire tower in the Marquette National Forest, 30 miles northwest of here. Pomrankey is a towerman at Mission Hill.

Carol Ann was playing on the back porch of the cabin, which is situated on a knoll. At about 3 p. m. Mrs. Pomrankey heard a scream and looked out the kitchen window to see the bear disappearing over the knoll dragging Carol Ann by the neck.

She tried chasing the bear with a broom and then ran into the house for the pistol. When this failed she called her husband, who was at National Forest headquarters.

Pomrankey and his associates immediately broadcast a radio appeal for help which was relayed by commercial stations. In a short time a posse of almost 100 men was formed in the isolated area and the hunt began. At 4:30 p. m. the body was found, a quarter of a mile from the cabin, lying in dense underbrush. Officers said the little girl apparently died instantly when the hunger-crazed bear seized her by the neck.

The girl had been badly mangled. While searchers were still standing by the body, they saw the bear come back for it. Wayne Weston, a fisherman, fired five shots and killed the animal. A Sault Ste. Marie veterinarian definitely established that it was the bear that killed Carol Ann. It was a small one, weighing about 200 pounds.

Cheers For Benes To Be Investigated By Czech Leaders

BY A. I. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, July 8. (P)—The Czechoslovak government will investigate a Sokol Congress that evidenced public enthusiasm for former President Eduard Benes and sympathy for his Communist successor, Klement Gottwald.

Paraders at the Slet, or Congress of the Cultural and Athletic Sokol society, Tuesday cheered for Benes and passed Gottwald in silence.

The Prague radio said yesterday ministers had been ordered to report on "results of the Slet" at the next meeting of the Communist-led cabinet.

Yugoslav, Russian, Polish, Trieste and Bulgarian groups had marched in Tuesday's parade, which also produced cheers for Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, lately criticized by the Cominform. American Czechs waved the Stars and Stripes.

Another government move signaled the start of a purge of Czechoslovakia's army. The army's education director, Gen. J. Prochazka, wrote in the Communist newspaper Rude Pravo that political instruction was beginning in the military establishment.

Early yesterday, groups moved through the city cheering for Benes and singing. Police broke them up. One big group cried, "Those who are not afraid will join us," while demonstrating for Benes in the Central Square.

Hustled out of there, it went to a railroad station and sang the national anthem before the pedestal of a statue of Woodrow Wilson.

Plants Idle; Berlin Coal Supply Slim

By Edwin Shanke and Georgi Bria

Berlin, July 8 (P)—The Russians' economic strangulation of western Berlin today forced drastic new cuts in the use of electricity and gas.

Unemployment grew among the 2,000,000 Germans in the blockaded American, British and French sections of the city. The emergency employment schemes to keep idle industrial workers off the streets. An unemployment assistance plan giving workers between 50 and 60 per cent of their normal wages was introduced.

Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, announced that the western powers had decided to maintain the present food rations but to cut coal. He said:

"To meet the emergency, to save 2,000,000 Berliners from starvation as well as economic and social destruction, the United States, British and French military governments are engaged in the greatest air lift in peacetime history. Thousands of tons of food, fuel and medicine are being flown from the west to Berlin."

"It is, however, recognized that with the limited air fields available and the narrow air corridor allotted, the air lift cannot at present meet all of the requirements of the people of Berlin."

Unfavorable weather slowed the Allied airlift this morning. By 10 a. m. only 19 American transport planes had arrived at Tempelhof airfield.

American fliers heard complaints from two of their comrades of strange radio interference in the air corridor to Berlin.

There were unconfirmed reports that Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky had gone to Moscow for consultations, presumably regarding an answer to the western Allies' protest over the Russian blockade.

Communists Losing Strength In Holland

Rightists Score Gains In Election Returns

Amsterdam, the Netherlands, July 8 (P)—Complete election returns revealed today that the Communists have lost strength in the Netherlands and Rightist groups have scored gains.

The Communists were deprived of two of their 10 seats in the lower chamber of parliament as a result of yesterday's general election. Their decline was particularly marked in Rotterdam, where they polled 30 per cent fewer votes than in the last election two years ago.

The middle-of-the-road Catholic People's party retained its 32 seats. The Catholics polled 1,531,326 of the 4,933,735 votes cast maintaining their position as the nation's No. 1 political group.

But the Catholic-Labor party coalition which makes up the present government lost some strength to the Rightist groups—the Conservative Anti-Revolutionary (Calvinist), Christian Historical (Protestant) and Freedom (Conservative).

The Labor party itself lost two of its 29 seats.

Apparently there was not a large enough shift, however, to make a marked change in Holland's political picture. A Labor party spokesman said he expected that Catholic Premier Louis J. M. Beel, who resigned yesterday, would be asked to form a new government.

Five Japs To Hang For Murder of 65 American Prisoners

Yokohama, July 8 (P)—Five Japanese today were sentenced to be hanged for the murder of 65 American army prisoners.

Forty-eight of the Americans burned to death in a cell block when the Tokyo military prison burned in an air raid in May, 1945. The other 17 were cut down with swords by the guards as they attempted to escape their burning cells.

Lansing, July 8 (P)—Governor Sigler will visit three Michigan cities by airplane today.

He will attend the funeral in Grand Rapids this morning of Thomas J. Wilson, the state civil service director who died Monday.

Sigler is due to arrive at Sault Ste. Marie at 3 p. m. to attend the convention of the State Probate Judges association and will be in Traverse City at 6:30 p. m. for the annual Cherry Festival.

Aides To Truman Count Ike Out Of Presidential Race

BY JACK BELL

Philadelphia, July 8 (P)—President Truman's aides counted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower definitely and finally out of the Democratic presidential race today.

They did this, a Truman spokesman told a reporter, after receiving private assurances from two close personal friends of the general.

The word they took to the White House was that Eisenhower himself believes he left no loophole for a draft movement to place him in the White House, the son of the late president said.

"I can't help but think that when General Eisenhower, understanding the national and international crisis, knows that the party and the nation are for him, he will allow the convention to place him in the White House," the son of the late president said.

Captive Mine Tieup Leaves 78,000 Idle

Union Tries To Get Men Back To Work

Pittsburgh, July 8 (P)—Approximately 78,000 soft coal miners remained idle today as United Mine workers officials continued self-described "missionary" efforts to get them back in the pits.

About 55,000 are "captive" miners—employed in mines operated by steel companies who have refused to sign a new contract with John L. Lewis. The remainder are employed in commercial mines.

As the government neared its decision on whether to try and secure a court order against the strike, there was a return-to-work movement in some commercial mines. It was prevalent mostly in West Virginia where only 7,000 of 105,000 commercial miners remained idle.

Crippled Oil Tanker In Port At Holland

Nine Of Crew Hurt By Blast And Flames

Holland, Mich., July 8 (P)—The crippled tanker Edgewater was in port here today while nine of her crew, injured by flames and explosion that rocked the ship yesterday, lay in a Chicago Marine hospital.

Only the fast and courageous action of the Coast Guard and the tanker's crew held the casualties of the Lake Michigan mishap to nine, observers said.

While the flames still licked at the ship and threatened to carry to her cargo of 31,000 barrels of gasoline, coast guardsmen landed a rescue plane on the water near the vessel and evacuated the injured.

Of the nine hurt, three were in serious condition.

During the rescue operation, the rest of the Edgewater's 29 crewmen battled the blaze that followed an explosion while the ship was 23 miles southwest of Ludington.

They were successful in saving all of the gasoline cargo. The Edgewater, owned by the Cleveland Tanker Co., was proceeding to Bay City after taking on her cargo at Lemont, Ill.

Truce Ends; UN Gets Out Of Holy Land

BY MAX BOYD

Cairo, July 8 (P)—Israel's high command announced today that Egyptian forces opened an offensive south of Tel Aviv in the waning hours of the Palestine truce.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, said at Rhodes that the Arabs rejected his plea to extend the four-week truce, although the Jews had accepted the proposal.

Renewed Arab-Jewish war on a full scale was expected tomorrow. The Jewish high command said the Egyptians already were throwing air, artillery and armored car attacks at Beer Tuva, 23 miles south of the Jewish capital.

Extension Rejected

"The war is on," a Jewish spokesman said.

Bernadotte announced that the Arabs apparently turned down even a three-day extension, but "all necessary steps are being taken immediately for safe evacuation of United Nations observers, personnel and their equipment."

The United States, France and Belgium each have 21 military observers in the Holy Land, supervised by a small staff of Swedish officers.

The Israelite asked both Jews and Arabs to withhold military action in Haifa and Beirut, Lebanon, until the end of the U. N. evacuation operations.

The four-week Palestine truce has less than 24 hours to go. Both sides were known to be preparing to resume fighting.

There was no indication in the Tel Aviv announcement whether the alleged attack was on a large scale or was another of the periodic clashes such as have marked the cease-fire.

Raid Sirens Sound

The Israel communiqué said the Egyptians were attacking in the direction of Isdud, where an Egyptian spearhead was trapped temporarily.

Polio Wave Spreads In North Carolina

Populous Areas Hardest Hit; Cases Total 408

Raleigh, N. C., July 8 (P)—Infantile paralysis edged relentlessly today toward its record severity of 1944 in North Carolina.

Four of the state's 100 counties were regarded as epidemic areas as the number of cases for this year reached 408 yesterday, the worst on record for this time of year.

Thirty-seven cases were reported yesterday but this high figure was attributed to a three-day backlog of reports caused by health departments closing over the Fourth of July weekend.

No quarantines have been imposed on swimming pools and theatres, as was the case back in 1944, when a record 878 cases were reported. Parents have been cautioned, however, to keep children away from crowds.

The greatest severity of outbreaks has been noted in the populous central portion of the state.

Veteran Battleship New York Is Sunk

Survivor Of Two Wars Gives Up To Bombs

BY LEIF ERICKSON

Aboard U. S. Carrier Boxer, July 8 (P)—The once tough old battleship New York—survivor of two wars and two atomic bomb tests—sank finally with just a "slight push" from small bombs and shells.

Navy task force officers expressed regret that she didn't survive an experimental attack long enough for them to test their weird bat bombs.

The exercises, 40 miles southwest of Pearl Harbor yesterday, cost the life of Marine Lt. John Delille Petterborg of Preston, Idaho, a marine fighter pilot. He spun into the sea off the carrier Boxer's stern nearly two hours after the sinking.

The 30,000-ton onetime grand dame of the United States fleet—survivor of two wars and two Bikini atomic blasts—went down at 2:00 p. m. after eight hours of air attack and light shelling.

House Draws Three Blanks In New York Labor Union Quizzes

New York, July 8 (P)—A House subcommittee has drawn three straight blanks in quizzing New York city labor leaders to find out if they have Communist affiliations.

In a tumultuous opening session yesterday, three union leaders flatly refused to answer when the House investigators asked if they were Communists.

One of them, Arthur Osman, president of Local 65 of the CIO department store union, told committee members:

"We are going to take people like you and run you out of congress."

His threat was answered by a burst of applause from spectators that packed the 13th-floor hearing room in the federal courthouse.

Spy Grandmother Hunted In Detroit

Detroit, July 8 (P)—Police were hunting today for an aged but spy little Manistee grandmother who disappeared yesterday from the home of her granddaughter.

Mrs. Anna Cronquist, 80, was making her first visit to Detroit when she vanished.

Herbert Schindler, her granddaughter's husband who brought her here Monday for a week's visit, said Mrs. Cronquist was in her bed at 4:30 a. m. yesterday but was gone when he and his wife arose at 8 a. m.

DICKSON WILL MOVE TO CLARE

Takes City Manager Job In Lower Michigan

James D. Dickson of Escanaba, who resigned in June as city manager of Manistique, today said that he has accepted the position of city manager of Clare in Lower Michigan, a community whose people recently voted to adopt council-manager government. Dickson will be Clare's first manager.

Dickson had served as Manistique city manager for 20 months, from October 1946 to June 1948. He resigned following a controversy in which the council was divided.

"The Clare city council is thoroughly informed concerning the matter at Manistique and the offer to me was made with full knowledge of the situation there," Dickson said.

One other offer for Dickson's services as manager was also made after his resignation at Manistique last month.

Dickson is a graduate in civil engineering of South Dakota State College. Following his graduation in 1932 he studied economics and public finance at George Washington University, Washington, D. C. He has worked as an engineer in several federal agencies including the Geological Survey, the Interstate Commerce Commission and the National Park Service. During the war years he served with the U. S. Army Engineers.

He will report for work at Clare on July 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson and their daughter, Dawn, who now reside at 1204 Lake Shore drive, will move to Clare by that date in a house made available to them through his position as city manager.

Dust-Preventative Chloride Is Being Put On Dirt Streets

The job of putting dust-preventative chloride on all dirt streets in Escanaba is expected to be completed by next Wednesday, Joe Holmes, city street superintendent, said this morning.

"Unfortunately, the second shipment of chloride was delayed due to circumstances beyond our control, but we have been informed that the shipment will arrive here this Friday," Holmes said.

"If so, we will start the job Monday and should finish it by Wednesday. A little more than half of the dirt streets in the city have been covered to date."

To Remain Exempt, Reservists Must Drill Regularly

Washington, July 8 (AP)—To remain draft exempt, organized reservists must not miss more than one out of 10 drill periods.

This is one of the qualifications Secretary of Defense Forrestal laid down at a news conference discussion of the new Selective Service Act.

Another is that the reserve unit must have at least 35 scheduled drills a year, or the equivalent. National Guard units qualify well beyond the limit with 48 drills annually.

The draft act passed by Congress said that enlistment in reserve organizations with regular training schedules would make them exempt, but the law didn't specify exactly what those units should be. It left the definition up to the secretary of defense.

After consulting with experts of the Army, Navy and Air Force, Forrestal yesterday issued a memorandum to the services. In substance, it said this:

If a man was a member of an organized reserve unit by midnight of June 24—the day the bill became law—and the unit had at least 35 scheduled drills a year, or training periods equivalent to that, he is exempt from induction. But there must be "satisfactory participation" by the reserve member. If his absence from drill exceeds 10 per cent, he will become eligible for the draft once inductions get underway around late September.

Men who were members of federally recognized National Guard units, either ground or air organizations, by midnight of June 24, will be exempt.

Forrestal asked the Secretaries of Army, Navy and Air to furnish him with a list of the reserve components which qualify under the definition he set up. As a general proposition, Forrestal said the units include, in addition to the National Guard and Army and Air Force reserve, organized reserve units of the Navy, including

Fr. Joseph Ling, Mackinac Island, Marks 50 Years

Father Joseph Ling, pastor of St. Anne church on Mackinac Island, will commemorate his 50th anniversary of ordination by offering a solemn high mass in the presence of his parish people and the clergy of the diocese on July 14. His excellency, Bishop Thomas L. Non of Marquette will attend.

The actual anniversary occurred last winter but the inaccessibility of the island during the winter season necessitated waiting until summer. Father Ling was ordained in Cambria, France, December 18, 1897.

He was born at Kempen, Germany May 21, 1875 and when a child moved with his parents to Roermond, Holland. He studied for the priesthood in Roermond and at the Catholic university in Lille, France. His first assignment was as chaplain at St. Camillus hospital in Lille, in 1897.

In 1904 he was assigned as assistant at Knutange in Lorraine and two years later became pastor of St. George parish in Lorraine.

He came to the United States in 1909 and served as chaplain of Ladies Home, Staten Island, N. Y., for a year and then was transferred to St. Peter's church in Long Island.

Ill health forced him to come west and he chose the Marquette diocese. He arrived in 1912 and served as assistant at St. Ignace church in Houghton. He was assigned as pastor of Barbeau and missions in 1914 and moved to Ewen in 1917.

He has been pastor of St. Anne's since 1934.

Hupy Candidate For Prosecutor In Menominee Co.

Wilfred J. Hupy, formerly of Spalding, who recently opened a law office in Menominee, today announced his candidacy for the office of Menominee county prosecuting attorney in the Republican primary to be held on Sept. 14.

The prosecutor's post is now filled by Victor A. Lundgren, jr., who was appointed by Circuit Judge Glenn W. Jackson to serve out the unexpired term of Michael J. Anuta who resigned last February due to ill health. Lundgren will also seek the Republican nomination.

Hupy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hupy, was born and reared on a Spalding township farm, attended Powers - Spalding High school graduating in 1935 as the valedictorian of his class. To get funds to go to college and pursue a law course, Hupy worked in the woods as a piece worker and sawyer and also held jobs in the merchandizing and advertising fields and on road construction projects.

He attended Jordan College in Menominee for two years and entered the University of Michigan where he was enrolled from 1937 to 1939.

Hupy entered the U. S. Army in 1941 as a private and rose to the rank of captain with considerable service in the European theater in World War II. As a battalion staff officer, Hupy served as an aerial observer for the 13th Air Corps, including such duties as front line reconnaissance, adjustment surveillance and registration of artillery on enemy installations. He was a battery executive officer and later was with the first troops to make contact with the Russian army at the Elbe river.

Hupy participated in the bat-

For Better Education

CITIZENS of Masonville, Ensign and Bay de Noc townships will go to the polls on July 14 to vote on a proposal to reorganize as a single rural agricultural school district.

If the proposal carries, the consolidated district will undertake important changes in the school system with a view toward giving the children of the three townships a higher standard of education.

For instance, children of Ensign and Bay de Noc townships will be transported to the central school at Rapid River for their seventh and eighth grade training, along with the students of the upper grades. Reorganization will make possible the installation of facilities and personnel for teaching home economics, vocational agriculture, shop and other courses now denied the boys and girls of these rural communities.

Parents and taxpayers of Masonville, Ensign and Bay de Noc townships, assembled at a series of meetings, have indicated plainly they want their children to enjoy educational advantages that will compare favorably with the training offered in Gladstone, Escanaba and other larger communities. After all, the young people are entitled the same "break" that is offered to others.

It is to be hoped that there will be a large turnout at the polls on July 14 so that the results will be representative of the wishes of the majority of the people of Masonville, Ensign and Bay de Noc townships.

Good Government

ONE of the old political axioms is that citizens of any community get the kind of government they deserve.

History continually repeats itself in the average American community. Back a quarter century ago, the manager system of government was presented with much fanfare as the cure-all for the evils of municipal politics. Escanaba, Gladstone, Sault Ste. Marie, Manistique and many other cities adopted the manager form, which admittedly provides a more effective vehicle for the administration of local governmental affairs.

But the manager system is no panacea. Many well-intentioned citizens made the mistake of thinking they could sit back and the new government would function like some automatic machine.

All forms of government require the perpetual interest and participation of the citizens for their success. The responsibility for good government cannot be left to the elective and appointive officials alone.

Citizens of Manistique, who probably took only a casual interest in governmental affairs the past several years, are again becoming awake to the problems of self-government. They will attend a meeting at the Manistique high school auditorium tonight to discuss the advisability of forming an organization to promote the ideals of good government.

We judge they are not interested in personalities. They seek mainly to arouse the people of Manistique to the responsibilities of citizenship. They are going to forget golf, fishing and other personal pleasures for just a few minutes each day and do some serious thinking about the problems of local government. This is the essence of democracy. Manistique will come out all right.

Avoid Water Accidents

AMERICAN people naturally take to the water. And the prevailing warm spell offers great opportunity for enjoying water activities.

It can be done in safety. Yet carelessness, daring, misinformation and undue haste will cause many water accidents.

Observe the rules in swimming and boating. Parents, particularly, should make it a point to see that their children go to the supervised bathing beaches, rather than to some isolated swimmin' hole.

Both Escanaba and Gladstone have engaged lifeguards for the season and are providing experienced supervision at their beaches. Those are the places to go to enjoy water sports with safety.

Just A Nuisance

THE English starling which is infesting the Upper Peninsula is a dark-colored bird, almost black in winter when contrasted against the snow, with a short tail and a yellow, wicked-looking bill.

The starling looks as if someone had taken a pair of scissors and clipped off all but an inch of its tail. Flocks of the birds have the habit of feeding in farming country fields during the day, and flying into the nearest town at night, where they are safe from owls and crows. But in seeking refuge around human habitations, they become a detested nuisance to the latter.

The starling infestation is best fought in the fields, inasmuch as the use of firearms for the purpose is forbidden, and wisely so, in most communities. It can be controlled by placing artificial owls near starling roosting places, but of course that doesn't finish off the pests. They simply move away a short distance, and keep on breeding.

The situation has become so bad in many a town that trees have had to be cut down to get rid of these pesky birds, whose gathering places smell to heaven after rains. Great flocks of starlings now haunt many cities, and cold weather doesn't seem to bother them, for they make a living somehow in sub-zero weather.

Crow hunters should always look for starlings and shoot them if possible. The starling is a noisy, dirty, smelly nuisance that deserves no quarter.

Iron Ore Barometer

SHIPMENTS of iron ore from the Lake Superior region the first half of this year showed an 18 per cent increase over the volume of cargoes loaded at upper lake ports during the first six months last year.

Iron ore shipments are an unfailing barometer of business conditions. Increased ore traffic means greater activity in the steel mills and heavy goods industries next fall and winter. It may be an indication, too, of a forthcoming step-up in the rearmament program to accompany the reactivation of army training camps, so that America can talk up effectively to Russia if the Moscow government continues its annoying tactics.

Activity in the heavy goods industries apparently will be maintained at high volume for some time yet, and that means a continuance of a high level of employment. In fact, there likely will be a serious labor shortage after the drafting of young men gets well under way.

THE CONVENTION SYSTEM (Marquette Mining Journal)

Quadrennial national party conventions are now so much a part of our familiar institutions it is hard to realize that for the first forty-five years after the Constitution became effective the country got along without them. It was not until 1832 that the followers of Henry Clay held the first one. They organized the Whig party and named Clay their candidate for president. The Democrats followed with a convention which did not have for its purpose the renomination of Andrew Jackson, but which, according to the convention call, might "cordially approve of the repeated nominations that President Jackson has received in various parts of the country."

Once it was established, the usefulness of the system became apparent, and prior to the 1948 Republican meeting the two leading parties had nominated a total of fifty-eight candidates. One convention, that held 109 years ago by the Whigs, took place in a church. There have been candidates since then who had little besides a prayer to go on, but they have not been nominated in churches. William Henry Harrison, sole holder of that distinction, was elected. After he was nominated, in the Zion Lutheran church in Harrisburg, the convention, dominated by Weed and Seward, adjourned without making any pledges.

UP AND UP WE GO (Milwaukee Journal)

A few weeks ago, the steel industry persuaded its unions to forgo a raise in wages. It made reductions in steel prices at that time.

Now the industry, seeing wages rising elsewhere, is about to capitulate. It indicates that there probably will be wage increases. If such increases are added to a higher cost for coal, steel will go up from $4 to $6 a ton. This increased price, like all other increased prices, will be passed on to the consumer.

So we go up, up and up. The few gestures made to hold wages where they were, and to reduce prices, have failed—largely because those groups of workers that were the best paid in industry insisted on more and more. Because they are in the basic part of industry, the effect has been felt throughout the price structure. They have not gained, and most everybody has lost.

The house shortage is preventing a lot of people from being moved by the piano music next door.

POLIO

What about "polio"? Should it be pronounced "polly-oh" or "poe-lee-oh"?

Let's take a word's-eye view of polio and see what conclusion we may arrive at.

Polio became a popular word a few years ago as a short way of saying the rather formidable medical term, poliomyelitis, "inflammation of the gray substance of the final cord," also called infantile paralysis, but not as frequently as heretofore.

Now poliomyelitis is pronounced: POLLEE-oh-MY-uh-LY-tiss, the first syllable rhyming with "doll." It is derived from the Greek polios, "gray," plus myelos, "marrow," plus -itis, "inflammatory disease of." But poliomyelitis is such a jawbreaker that, when it began to replace the term infantile paralysis, it was quite natural to shorten the seven-syllable pol-i-o-my-e-li-tis to polio, which is now the customary term among medical people and laymen alike. But you may not find it in your dictionary.

When polio became the popular word, I recommended the pronunciation "polly-oh," because of the correct short "o" sound in the first syllable of poliomyelitis. But, doubtless because of the resemblance of polio to polio, most Americans preferred to say "poe-lee-oh," which today is the standard pronunciation, and already has de-

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—The president stands behind his desk and, in his resolute, somewhat high-pitched, Missouri voice, reads a statement denouncing the feeble housing bill passed in the closing hours of the Congress. When he finishes reading, he pauses and asks if there are any questions.

Childs

He is wearing a summer suit of brown corded material and a white shirt with a brown-and-white-checked tie. His face has a ruddy, healthy color and he seems able to laugh with the relaxed air of one who is certain of his future course.

In three years Harry S. Truman has learned a great deal. He has learned to play the game of give-and-take with the 100 or more reporters who crowd into his oval office for this press conference.

They want to know what he really feels about the coming political campaign. Does he think he will have enough delegates to be nominated on the first ballot? Yes, of course. What does he think of the Dewey-Warren ticket? They'll find that out later; he likes Warren but he will defeat the Dewey-Warren ticket.

WILL NOT RETIRE

And then comes the question that everyone in the room has expected: Do you have any intention of retiring as a candidate? None at all, says the president, and for a moment he shows his discomfiture. That, he adds, is foolish question No. 1.

Probably not one of the 100 or more men and women facing him believes that he can be re-elected to the office he holds. All the polls, all the portents show that his chances are slim indeed. But the man behind the desk, parrying the questions that come thick and fast, gives no sign that he knows this.

The thoughts of the prisoner in the White House, and every president is in one degree or another a prisoner, are his own. The facade that Mr. Truman presents to the world is one of cheerful optimism and resolution.

Some of those who see him frequently on politics are doubtful of the reality of this brave front. But they have no way of knowing what is in the back of the president's mind.

They know, however, that those who are trying to get him to retire are going about it in a way calculated to have exactly the opposite effect. Statements urging the president to step aside and insisting on the availability of General Dwight D. Eisenhower help to persuade him of the correctness of his conviction of two and a half months ago—that he cannot be a quitter.

The only appeal that might touch him would come from an old friend who would put it on the basis of loyalty to the party. The time for that kind of appeal, however, has probably gone by. Unless the president is concealing a secret determination to retire, and the chances of that seem slight indeed, he will go to Philadelphia to accept the nomination of his party for the presidency.

NO COMMENT ON TITO

On Marshal Tito and on Russia the president replies, no comment. From unhappy experience earlier in his administration, he has learned to hold back offhand judgments that might have worldwide repercussions. Now and then he forgets this restraint, as in his rear platform remark that Uncle Joe Stalin was a good old fellow who was unfortunately a prisoner of the Politburo.

Back of the president's frequent "no comment" on foreign affairs is a feeling that in the present slump in his popularity rating, he is being given less than justice for the results of the firm foreign policy that began with the Truman doctrine. The break between Moscow and Marshal Tito is seen as one of the results of this policy.

No news in a long time has caused such satisfaction at the White House. It is considered a refutation of the prophet of gloom—among them many commentators—who took a dim view of the intervention in Greece and Turkey.

Now the policy of firmness, with the buttress of the Marshall plan, is paying off. The country will undoubtedly hear a lot more about this during the campaign.

The new self-confidence, whatever its real depth may be, is a well-timed political manifestation. The president stands behind his desk as the reporters file out, nodding and smiling at acquaintances. Unless there is an abrupt change or some unforeseen political accident, this is the cheerful front the Democratic candidate will present to the country in the months ahead. Perhaps not until he hits down to write his own life story will we know what he is really thinking.

So here's a new paste-in item for your dictionary:

Pol-i-o, a short form of poliomyelitis, "inflammation of the gray substance of the spinal cord." Pronunciation: POE-lee-oh.

Since the purpose of this column is to report good usage, and not to attempt to make arbitrary rules, the desire for accuracy impels me to report that "poe-lee-oh" not only prevails among the people but also is the only pronunciation listed for polio in the American College Dictionary by Random House, Dorland's Medical Dictionary, and Funk and Wagnalls' New College Standard. Polio is not listed in other dictionaries.

How would you compare the word "perfect"? Mr. Colby explains this, as well as how to compare other tricky words, in his leaflet, C-15, "The Three Degrees of Comparison."

To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to him, in care of Escanaba Daily Press, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y.

HIGH SCHOOL PARTY—The way is not easy for the transgressor. The Menominee & Marinette Brewing company, Menominee, has had its license for sale of beer to individuals suspended for 30 days and has been ordered to pay a fine of $100 because it sold two one-eighth barrels of beer to an 18-year-old minor.

The Michigan liquor control commission following a hearing in Escanaba reported in summary the testimony of witnesses, including that of an 18-year-old Marinette youth.

"The witness stated that he helped pay for the beer. He stated on cross-examination that his friend looked to be 22 or 23, that he is five feet 11 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds, and has an extremely heavy beard which causes him to shave every day. He further stated that these two 'ponies' of beer were to be used at a party of high school students who were being graduated that month, and that the minor was selected to make the purchase because of his adult appearance."

INFLATION—Political candidates will not have all their campaign buttons this year. The McGraw-Hill company, publisher of Business Week, reports: "The reason behind it—they cost two and one-quarter cents each, compared with three-quarters of a cent in 1940."

HOT AND HOTTER—John "Jack" Gherna of Escanaba and Western Union drop a note from Minneapolis where he is attending a 12-day Western Union training school. The temperature in Minneapolis was 95 degrees on Saturday, July 3, he reports and compares it with the coolness of Escanaba's high of 70 for the same day.

"Your temperature is more to my liking," Jack says, adding, "and folks in Escanaba are very lucky. I'll be glad to get home."

By this time Mr. Gherna probably knows that the temperature zoomed to 96 degrees in Escanaba the afternoon of July 6. Escanaba has everything, including variety.

SEA SERPENTS—At Petoskey, Mich., Herman Keys is trying to unlock the mystery of the Little Traverse Bay sea serpent. He will organize an expedition and go out looking for the supposedly mythical beast. We once knew a man who saw a sea serpent. He is the same man who threw all those empty beer cans out of his boat while fishing walleyes last spring.

WATER RIGHTS—The Upper Peninsula usually has more than an ample quantity of water for every purpose, including swimming, drinking, boating and for watering crops.

There are times, however, when there is need of irrigation. One of the leaders in the irrigation of potato crops was Emil DeJacker of St. Nicholas who not only watered the spuds for greater yield but to ward off early killing frost and prolong the growing season.

In Lower Michigan most of the irrigation is for small fruit crops. More recently such systems have been installed for potato, corn, pasture and truck gardens.

The state is in a legal vacuum so far as water rights are concerned, reports the conservation

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Milan, Mich.—The last ray of hope for the life of Anthony Chebatoris flickered out today, and the federal government gave the state of Michigan its first legal execution in 108 years. Shortly before sunrise, Chebatoris, doomed for the killing of a bystander in a bank robbery attempt in Midland last fall, came out of his cell and joined in the slow death march that ended at the scaffold, a frame, canvas-covered structure in the yard of the federal detention farm.

Escanaba—Mrs. Ted Baldwin and son, Jon, have returned from a visit with Mrs. Baldwin's sisters in Gore Bay, Ontario.

Twenty Years Ago
Escanaba—D. H. Cathcart, representative in this district of the International Sunday School association, has arranged an interesting program for the annual group gathering of Sunday school workers which will be held today at Pioneer Trail park.

Escanaba—Mrs. Mark Andrews and son, of Fargo, N. D., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Andrews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoyer.

Escanaba—Miss Agnes Erickson, buyer for Lauermans, leaves this morning on her vacation trip. She will accompany Miss Agnes Olson, store manager for the Hoyer Baking company.

department. Questions now unanswered by law include: Who has the right to drain water from a creek? Who has prior right to the water in the ground? Who may draw irrigation water from a lake? The rights of water users, their privileges and responsibilities, have yet to be defined, and the only adjustment is through court review of damages claimed in each specific case.

Under the above heading, Escanaba residents will remember the nominal damage awarded plaintiffs who a few years ago sued the city for "drying up" surface wells in pumping the city's deep wells.

LAND AND WATER—While the conservation department is reporting to the Bureau of Economic development on water uses by humans, Ephemerida keeps right on using water the way Ephemerida has always used it. And while the bureau assembles information to present to the legislature as the basis for control and equity in the water resources field, Ephemerida's children just keep on swimming around, uncontrolled and inequitably.

EPHEMERIDA—Other and more familiar names for Ephemerida are Shad fly, May fly and ephemeral flies—although we have only seen the latter in a book.

The May fly is that slender, delicate insect with membranous wings that goes plop on the wind-shield and pop when run over on the pavement. They are the swarming flies that cover the fronts of buildings in Great Lakes port towns. In this locality they are perhaps best known as Green Bay flies.

They are ephemeral—thus Ephemerida—and their adult life lasts only a few short hours or days. Their larval stage is from one to three years, spent entirely in bay waters where they eat vegetable matter.

The flies you see are the adults. It says here that they eat nothing, which may account for their short life. No one has yet determined whether they gave up eating because of a lack of appetite or because of high prices.

Hollywood

Column

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

Hollywood — (NEA) — How many times have you heard the boy in a movie tell the girl: "You're no good, but you're my kind. We were meant for each other."

It's Hollywood cliché No. 67432. But now, I hear, comes a new twist. In a new picture, a friend informs me (he couldn't remember the title) the hero tells the girl: "Baby, we're from the same jungle."

The new look, obviously, in the "we-were-meant-for-each-other" routine.

Doug Fairbanks, Jr., is set for a musical, "The Caballero." He'll make it after returning from London. . . . June Haver flies to Memphis, Tenn., next month to see her father for the first time in 12 years.

Sandra Gould has been laughing over that sign over a Tarzana, Calif., feed store: "If our egg mash don't make 'em lay, they're roosters."

Page Cavanaugh remarked to a film producer at a party how happy his wife looked and the producer said: "Yeah, she's just been to her psychiatrist and now she's got something to worry about again."

NEW COMBINATION

The old baseball slogan, "From Tinker to Evers to Chance" gets a twist in "Take Me Out to the Ball game." M-G-M has a new song about "From O'Brien to Ryan to Greenberg."

Cornel Wilde and wife Pat Knight, who almost separated a few months ago, are working in a new Columbia film titled, "The Lovers." That's Hollywood. You fight in public and somebody says, "What a great love team!"

Elliott Roosevelt is writing a play, with encouragement from Faye Emerson Roosevelt. . . . In the divorce settlement, Carole Landis gets the home she and Horace Schmidlapp lived in while they were married—and that is all.

The Hollywood fights are on again. Dezi Arnaz walked out of a picture at Columbia because he didn't like the story. . . . Lauren Bacall and Warner Bros. are fighting. Everybody makes a fortune in Hollywood, but nobody is happy.

CROWD PULLER

That hardy perennial, "Gone With the Wind," is making another round of the U. S. I guess M-G-M and David O. Selznick have made more money from this picture than any movie ever made. And that includes "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." A "Snow White" always reminds me of 1938 and Mae West when business was off at the box office. Exhibitors were screaming that the only picture making money was "Snow White." "Yes," agreed Mae, "and if they had cast me as Snow White it would have made twice as much."

Joan Leslie's suit against Warner Bros. to break her contract is headed for the U. S. Supreme Court. California courts have ruled against her, but Joan still thinks the case can be won. The argument is whether a contract signed by a minor is still legal after she becomes 21.

Edana Romney, Britain's feminine version of Orson Welles—she writes, produces and acts—is causing as much interest in Hollywood as Ingrid Bergman did when she first arrived here. And speaking of Bergman, those rumors of a domestic rift continue. That wall she built around her home-life is cracking.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington. — There was great excitement aboard the president's yacht on a recent trip down the Potomac when Paul Porter, former OPA boss, turned up among the guests.

Pearson

Anxiously, a White House aide asked Truman: "Who invited him, Mr. President? Paul Porter is a spy for the Eisenhower people. He's a vice chairman of the Americans for Democratic Action, which is all-out for the nomination of Eisenhower."

"Oh, don't worry about Paul," replied Truman impishly. "He's all right. In fact, it's the other way around. He's a spy for me in the Eisenhower camp."

DAN TOBIN WOODED

Gruff, likable Dan Tobin, boss of the AFL Teamsters Union, always calls on AFL colleagues during visits to Washington. In New Deal years this was frequent, for Dan was a great friend and close adviser of FDR's.

Last week Tobin's AFL cronies were particularly anxious to see him, and get the lowdown on his conference with President Truman. They knew Dan had been suddenly "summoned" to the White House and they wanted to know whether Truman had been successful in bringing the rebellious teamster back into the Democratic fold.

However, Dan blew in and out of Washington as if he were traveling incognito. He saw no one except Truman.

Reason was that the bigshot labor leader was more than somewhat confused after the president, who desperately needs Tobin's support in his nomination and election drive, turned the ultraviolet charm ray on him during a private "audience."

Reason behind Tobin's White House summons of course was his press statement that AFL President Bill Green wasn't speaking for the Teamsters Union when Green declared labor couldn't support the Republican Dewey-Warren ticket. Also the White House grapevine reported that Tobin was sore at Truman for not consulting with him, as did FDR.

In the background also was the close kinship between Dave Beck, Tobin's top lieutenant on the west coast, and Dewey's running mate, Earl Warren of California. The AFL Teamsters have always been in the Democratic column, but this year it looks like the west coast branch, at least, will go Republican, due to the Warren influence.

TRUMAN COOS TO TOBIN

Meanwhile, here is a report on the Truman-Tobin talk which may interest Dan's AFL colleagues.

Truman didn't discuss political fine points, except to say that he hoped the Teamsters Union would continue to exert its influence for "candidates friendly to labor," as it did during New Deal years.

"I realize I have been remiss in not calling on you and other responsible labor leaders for advice more often," Truman half-way apologized. "But I think you realize I haven't had the time or opportunity to do this, due to the overwhelming obligation of other things, chiefly international affairs."

"It's going to be different from now on, Dan," he continued, "and I want you to know that you are always welcome at the White House as long as I am here. Your advice has always been welcomed in the past and I am sure that we will continue to operate on the old standard after November."

Tobin didn't commit himself. But he did agree with Truman on one thing—that the last Congress should be blasted for blocking public housing and other liberal measures. Other than that, the Teamsters' boss made no promises.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

New G. O. P. chairman, Congressman Hugh D. Scott of Pennsylvania, sounded just a bit like Nazi Propagandist Joseph Goebbels back during the war years. Declared Scott at a Lincoln day dinner February 12, 1943: "It is time for the Republicans to take over. We are the best stock. We are the best people." Governor Dewey will spend most of his time between now and Labor Day in Pawling, N. Y., preparing for his campaign. Republican leaders from all over the country will gather at Pawling to confer with him. . . . Indiana delegates are still a bit irked because their favorite son, House Majority Leader Charlie Halleck, missed out on the vice-presidential nomination. Halleck assured them at a secret caucus that he had Dewey's promise for the job if he could deliver Indiana's votes.

Dewey men say otherwise. . . . A strong move is under way to name statesmanlike Senator Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming as Truman's running mate in Philadelphia. O'Mahoney could do more to offset Governor Warren's popularity in the west than Governor Mon Wallgren of Washington, though the old Al Smith story lurks in the background. . . . If fighting in the Holy Land is resumed, the Arab armies are in for a big surprise. The new state of Israel now has a trained Air Force, tanks and armored cars.

UNDER THE DOME

Hold First Retreat In Newly-Dedicated Marygrove In July

Catholic women from Garden, Cooks, Fayette and Nahma will be the first to make a retreat in Marygrove, retreat center given by Mrs. Catherine Bonifas and dedicated June 23 by Bishop Thomas L. Noa of Marquette. The retreat begins July 9.

The center is one of the most modern in Upper Michigan and assures people attending the religious exercises the finest hotel accommodations.

A member of the Chicago Missionary band, comprised of secular priests, will be on hand to conduct the closed retreat. He and his associates are scheduled for all sessions to be held in July at Marygrove.

Catholic women from other parts of Upper Michigan wishing to make retreats at either Marygrove or Camp Plagens in Watersmeet can register with the pastor at Garden, with their parish priest, or with Rev. David Speltz, Locker, drawer 538, Marquette, Mich.

Accommodations at Marygrove will handle 35 per session, July 13, 14 and 15 is reserved for the women of Escanaba, Gladstone, Bark River, Rapid River, Perkins and other Delta county communities.

Director of Gold Star Wives Here

Mrs. John Hathaway of Birmingham, N. Y., a member of the board of directors of the national organization of the Gold Star Wives of America, is a visitor in Escanaba and has offered to give information concerning the organization to those who are interested in forming a local unit of Gold Star Wives.

Membership in Gold Star Wives of America is limited to the widows of World War II. Women interested in contacting Mrs. Hathaway may call No. 110-W and she will meet with them in connection with organization and in a discussion of their problems.

In the history of evolution, birds are more closely related to the crocodilians than crocodilians are to the turtles.

Cooking Institute Planned at Camp

An Upper Peninsula Lunch Institute is being planned at the Wells State Park Youth Camp for August 16-23 inclusive.

The institute is being sponsored jointly by the Department of Public Instruction and the Department of Health. The institute will be given in two sessions of one week each. Cooks may choose either week.

School lunch cooks will be given one week of instruction in preparation of balanced meals and in proper utilization of surplus foodstuffs.

Reservations must be made in advance to either of the following: Mr. George Gilbert, Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette; Mrs. Ethyl Schuyler, County Superintendent of Schools, Menominee; or Joseph B. Gucky, superintendent of Stephenson public schools, Stephenson.

Hospital

Janice Marie Gregory, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Gregory, 714 First avenue south, who fractured both wrists in a fall from a slide at Ludington Park, has been dismissed from St. Francis hospital after having the fractures reduced and is now at her home.

The downbeat of a bird's wings drives it forward.

Tree-Planting Project Planned At State Fair

To show that forest trees can be mechanically planted, a tree-planting demonstration will be conducted on two successive mornings, Aug. 20 and 21, during the Upper Peninsula State Fair in Escanaba.

It will be held on about five acres of land north of the exhibition building at the fairgrounds.

William Kluender, extension forester of the Chicago & North Western railroad, St. Paul, Minn., will be in active charge of operating and demonstration details, while George E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, is arranging preliminary details.

Serving with Bishop on the committee arranging for the demonstration are J. G. Wells, Jr., superintendent of the Chatham experiment farm; John I. Keeton, Munising Development Bureau president; G. C. Meyland, Marquette, Northern Michigan College of Education faculty member; William Duchaine, Escanaba; Harold Lindsay, Escanaba, secretary-manager of the U. P. State Fair; Joseph Heiman, Delta county agricultural agent; W. D. Jewell, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce; Roy E.

Skog, forester for the Michigan State college extension department, and Paul A. Wohlen, of the U. S. Forest Service.

At a meeting of the group Wednesday at the fairgrounds office in Escanaba, Bishop pointed to the "growing general interest upon the part of farmers, resort operators, paper mill and chemical plant operators, lumbermen and large land owners in the planting of our denuded areas with forest stock."

Most of the planting in the Upper Peninsula was done with cheap labor during the depression days, he said adding that the principal object of this demonstration is to prove that these forest trees can be planted mechanically at comparatively low cost. It is planned to obtain pine or spruce planting stock for the demonstration and to invite manufacturers of planting machines to exhibit their machines at the fair.

Interested farmers, paper, lumber and land companies and resort operators from all UP will be invited to witness the demonstration.

This should be the initial effort of awakening interest in a renewed endeavor on the part of the Upper Peninsula to effect the maximum of cooperation among Michigan State College, the University of Michigan, U. S. Forest Service, state department of conservation, Northern Michigan College of Education, Michigan College of Mining and Technology and the extension division of the Michigan State College in this program," Bishop said.

"The people of Upper Michigan, its Chambers of Commerce, schools, civic associations, Boy and Girl Scouts, all should be enlisted in the effort to retain our forests,—so necessary to the industrial and recreational future of our area.

"At the annual meeting of the Development Bureau in Escanaba, October 8 and 9, we hope this program will be set up in more final form. If we can get over the idea that trees can be mechanically planted at cost less than that of hand labor, we will be taking the initial step in crystallizing overall interest.

"During the war years and since, the demand for forest products of all types have made vast inroads on our forest supply and we must initiate a program that will replace our forest growth."

Parade Of Quartets In Escanaba Oct. 16

Some of the finest barbershop quartets in the country, including several which competed in the world's championship contest at Oklahoma City last month, will be in Escanaba Oct. 16 for the first annual barbershop quartet concert sponsored by the Escanaba barbershop quartet society (SPEBSQSA). It was announced today by Lowell Sundstrom, president of the Escanaba unit.

General chairman for the October quartet concert, called "parade of quartets" by the barbershoppers, is Ernest E. Peterson, who this week is completing his committee appointments in preparation for the big show at Escanaba in the Fall.

Most of the quartets to appear here have been contacted, and it is expected that there will be nine out-of-town units in the Escanaba parade, in addition to Escanaba entries and the Escanaba Barbershop Chorus under the direction of Sam Ham, assisted by George King. Similar quartet parades have been produced in Iron Mountain, Marquette and Marinette during the past year, and houses have been universally sold out for the unique musical entertainment.

The salary of the home demonstration agent will be paid in full by extension department of the college from the third increment of the Hooper-Planagan bill. The Delta county board of supervisors has made an appropriation of $50 a month for the agent's travel expenses.

The home demonstration agent, who must be a college graduate who majored in home economics, will work with homemakers clubs in the county.

Swimming, Life Saving Classes To Start Monday

Swimming and life saving classes at the Escanaba municipal beach will get underway at 10 next Monday morning, it was announced this morning by Art Peterson, of the city recreation department, who is in charge of the bathing beach.

Courses to be taught are beginner's, six years of age and up; intermediate, any age; swimmers, any age; advanced swimmers, any age; junior life saving, 12 to 15 years, and senior life saving, 16 and over.

Francis Luenburg, who has just completed the instructor's course at Camp Douglas Smith, will teach all beginner's and intermediate courses. Bill Hemes, who also has qualified for the instructor's certificate, will teach swimmers and advanced swimmers, and Peterson will instruct in junior and senior life saving.

"All persons, young or old, who do not know how to swim, are urged to participate in these classes," Peterson said. "By learning how to swim and then learning how to save a life, swimmers not only will be able to take care of themselves but they some day may have the opportunity to help somebody else."

The normal body temperature of a bird ranges from 104 to 108 degrees.

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"

Ever since January, Will Dudley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day—and first thing you knew, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know. A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, so long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the looks of his living room any time he wants.

Cite Safety Rules For Rental Of Motorboats

Certain safety equipment is required in motorboats (which include boats propelled by outboard motors) and the responsibility for providing this equipment is that of the owner, according to a recent circular on navigation and vessel inspection issued by the U. S. Coast Guard.

Dan Garrett, officer in charge of the U. S. Coast Guard light-house at Escanaba, has received the following information in Navigation and Vessel Inspection Circular No. 5 and directs public attention to its provisions.

"Many launch liveries have been renting motorboats, including those propelled by outboard motors, to persons not familiar with safety requirements required by the Motorboat Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. In many cases where a deposit for the safe return of the lifesaving and other equipment required has been demanded, the renter of the boat has objected and in certain instances the motorboats have been operated without the safety equipment required so that persons on board such vessels were without protection in case of emergency," it was pointed out.

The owners of motorboats are responsible for placing the proper safety equipment on board and to see that it is there when the boat is rented.

"Motorboats, including those propelled by outboard motors, must be equipped with proper life preservers or lifesaving devices." (Cushions or other devices inflated with air for buoyancy are not permitted.)

"Fire extinguishers are not required for boats equipped with outboard motors." (If an outboard motorboat is operated after sunset it must be equipped with red and green running lights located forward, and a white stern light.)

The safety equipment on such motorboats is required whenever the boats are navigated on any navigable waters of the United States. Owners of boats who operate their craft in violation of the regulations are subject to penalty. Included is a fine of $200 for those who operate vessels for hire in violation of the regulations.

U.P. Girls Work As Nurses' Aides At St. Anthony's

St. Anthony hospital's nursing staff is being enlivened this summer by the addition of a group of 32 girls of high school age, who have been recruited from this part of the country to serve the hospital as aides during the busy vacation periods.

Working in the Rockford hospital in this capacity from Escanaba are JoAnne Barron, Jeanne Belanger, Joan Farrell, and Nancy Flink. Also employed are Florence Cartwright, Charlee DuRoy and Edith Groleau, Gladstone; Marlene Constantine, Beverly Johnson, Annabelle Kalleron, Marcella Lundquist, and Irene Strand, Ensign; Leona Gurgall, Hermansville; Agnes Karasti, Patricia Derwin and Dorothy Stenlund, Rapid River; Geraldine Mischen and Shirley Mischen, Bark River; and Marilyn Johnson of Stonington.

The young nurses' aides have an opportunity during the summer both to earn some extra money and to learn something about the nursing profession as a prospective career. Since the hospital hasn't been able to increase its staff as fast as its capacity has grown in the past few years, it was decided this year to recruit paid aides to help during the months when many nurses take their vacations.

Several of the nurses' aides are planning to enter the nursing school this fall, and some will stay on as aides. Many of the girls will have to return to high school for their senior year in September. Almost all of them are about seventeen or eighteen years old.

Giving baths, back rubs, making beds, arranging flowers, and serving meals are among the aides' duties. The girls are taught the rudiments of nursing in regular classes. They live on the second floor of the nurses' home and keep the same hours as the nurses.

The young nurses' aides, who are now wearing pert white uniforms, eventually will have a standard dress of gray to wear while they are working. They are paid $100 a month in addition to their room, board and laundry expenses.

Almost half of the girls are from towns in Michigan. The rest are from Galena, Beloit and Rockford.

Anna Boettiger Speaks Vows In Quiet Ceremony

Phoenix, Ariz., July 8 (AP)—In a quiet double ring ceremony, Anna Eleanor Boettiger, the eldest grandchild of the late president Franklin D. Roosevelt, became the bride of Van H. Seagraves of Oregon City, Ore., yesterday.

Fifteen years ago the bride was one of the best known and most frequently photographed children in the country. It was at that time, during her grandfather's first term, that she and her brother Curtis lived in the White House.

Known familiarly as "Sistie" and "Buzzie", the children made the presidential mansion their home from 1933-35.

Only members of the family and close friends were present at yesterday's ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, John and Anna Roosevelt Boettiger.

The newly married couple left Phoenix late yesterday following an hour spent posing for photographers.

Their destination was unannounced, but they expect to arrive in Portland, Ore., in time for the groom to report for work July 18 as a salesman for a meat packing firm there.

For the ceremony the 21-year-old bride wore an aluminum-striped lime green cotton ballerina dress with fitted bodice. Her strapless shoulders were covered with a scarf in stole effect and she wore a matching headband.

Silver Ballet slippers were buckled with rhinestone clips. She carried tiny green orchids and lilies of the valley.

Sistie met her husband about 18 months ago when both were students at Reed college in Portland. Van, who is 25, graduated this year after his education was interrupted while he served as an officer in the Navy during the war. The bride completed her junior year.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the former president, attended the wedding.

Buzzie was there also with two other Roosevelt grandchildren, her brother John Roosevelt Boettiger, and Haven Roosevelt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roosevelt of Pasadena, Calif.

The Episcopal service was conducted in colorful surroundings overlooking the patio of the Boettiger home. The Rev. Morton T. Kelsey of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral here performed the ceremony.

Neither the bride nor the groom were attended with Boettiger giving Sistie in marriage.

Christened Anna Eleanor Dall, the bride and her brother Buzzie took the Boettiger name after their mother divorced Curtis Dall and remarried.

Young Man Lines Up Family To Be Shot; Police Nip Tragedy

Quincy, Mass., July 8 (AP)—A 23-year-old man who police said lined five members of his family against a wall and threatened to shoot them was held today on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill.

Frank P. Sorgenti was booked last night after two patrolmen reported they pounced on him while he had his parents, two sisters and a brother backed against the wall of their home at the point of a gun.

Patrolmen Edward Kusser and Arthur Duffy said they were summoned by neighbors who reported the young man "was threatening to kill his family."

The officers said the five were still pinned against the yard wall when they arrived. They reported they talked Sorgenti into dropping the gun and then grabbed him.

Members of the family said the young man marched them outdoors at gunpoint after arguing with his father.

They said they believed the young man, a Marine Corps paratrooper in World War II, became "temporarily deranged."

Ike Says It Again, Tells 5,000 People He's No Candidate

New York, July 8 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said it again last night—to a crowd of approximately 5,000 that gathered outside his residence.

In response to the crowd's chants of "We want Ike," the general stepped out on the balcony, waved, and said smiling: "I have no speech to make. All I have to say I said in a letter the other night."

In the letter, released Monday night, Eisenhower disavowed any political ambitions, and said he "could not accept nomination for any public office."

The demonstration outside his residence at Columbia university, of which he is president, began as a torchlight automobile parade organized by the Americans for Democratic Action which has supported the draft-Eisenhower movement.

porarily before the armistice. Tel Aviv dispatches said air raid sirens sounded in the Jewish capital shortly after noon, but there were no immediate signs of hostile planes.

Reports from Amman, Trans-Jordan capital, said two U. N. truce observers based there had received orders to leave immediately.

The four-week armistice runs out at 6 a. m., Greenwich mean time, (1 a. m. Eastern standard time) tomorrow.

A Tel Aviv source said Israel has agreed to extend the truce. But an Arab league spokesman here declared last night there would be no extension.

The understanding at United Nations headquarters in Lake Success, N. Y., was that Count Folke Bernadotte, U. N. Palestine mediator, had told the secretary general he was ready to ask both sides to hold fire three more days until 100 more truce observers and secretariat members could get out of the country.

Fleet Moves In
Most of the United States Mediterranean fleet was moving into the Eastern Mediterranean. Three cruisers, two destroyers, a carrier and an escort carrier were headed that way from Istanbul and Naples. But Secretary of Defense Forrestal told a Washington news conference yesterday the movements were according to schedule and had "no significance."

Both the Arabs and Jews were making war preparations. Israel this week lifted the top draft age from 35 to 41. Arab chiefs of staff ended meetings here last night and were due to return home today.

"Give the Egyptian army victory after victory," was the prayer of King Farouk, back last night from a visit to Egyptian troops in Palestine. The prayer was included in a message to his people.

Brewery Officials Get Prison Terms In Pfeiffer Fraud

Detroit, July 8 (AP)—Three brewery officials were fined and sentenced to prison today on charges of defrauding the Pfeiffer Brewing Co. of more than $500,000.

They were convicted of mail fraud charges by an all-woman jury May 15 after one of the longest federal court trials in Detroit in some years.

Sentenced to three years were Alfred Epstein president and general manager of Pfeiffer, and his brother, Elias Epps, who headed several firms that supplied the brewery. They are from Detroit.

Carleton S. Smith of South Bend, Ind., president of Drewerys Ltd., U. S. A., Inc., and a Pfeiffer director, was sentenced to 18 months.

Epps was fined $4,000, Epstein $2,000 and Smith $2,000 by Federal Judge Arthur A. Kosinski.

The three were released under bonds of $1,000 each pending appeals from the sentences.

The jury held that the three men set up "dummy" corporations through which they bought $3,000,000 in supplies at prices above the market. The government charged that these deals "milked" Pfeiffer stockholdings of $500,000.

British Quit, Deal Blows to 36-Nation Wheat Agreement

London, July 8 (AP)—Great Britain has quit the international wheat agreement, giving a death blow to the 36-nation pact intended to bring order into international wheat marketing.

The British announcement said the action was taken because the United States congress failed to ratify the agreement.

Under the proposed pact, world prices would have been fixed for exports of American, Canadian and Australian wheat.

Bear Carries Off Baby Near Sault

The child's distraught father told officers he had frequently seen bear tracks around the cabin recently, but had paid no particular attention to them.

In Lansing, conservation department officials ordered the carcass of the bear sent there for examination by Dr. Stanley Whitlock, game division pathologist.

Dr. Whitlock said the bear would be "examined thoroughly for any indication as to the cause of its abnormal behavior."

The bear will be tested for rabies, a possible brain condition, disease or injury that may have made it difficult for it to obtain its natural food.

Conservation officials generally were baffled by the case on the reports reaching the state capital. They said they were not able immediately to account for what they called the highly unusual behavior of the bear.

Newberry Case Recalled
Harry D. Ruhl, department game division chief, said the only other case of a Michigan black bear molesting a human that he knew of occurred eight years ago.

A bear stood fast in a forest trail and refused to let district game manager Pat Furlong of Newberry pass. The bear, however, did not attack.

Ruhl suggested that the bear which carried off the child yesterday may have been raised in captivity and had lost its fear of man. He said that deer which have been raised from fawns by the department and then released sometimes will attack men.

He pointed out that bear sometimes carry away calves and pigs, but that this usually occurs when their natural food is scarce. At this time of year, Ruhl said, there should be plenty of berries and roots to satisfy the bears' hunger.

He urged northern Michigan residents not to be panicked by the incident, pointing out that in "999 out of 1,000 cases" bears will run away at the first whiff of human scent.

BIG ROLEO NOW
BUT A MEMORY

Bleachers which were set up on the west side of the harbor are being disassembled and returned to the schools from which they were obtained or are being stored.

Snow fencing is being removed from the park area and the stage will be taken apart and the piling removed from the boat harbor. The public address system, lighting and other properties already have been removed.

The carnival which was on city park property moved out Monday night for a new location and concession tents which lined the sidewalk leading to the boat harbor have disappeared.

Incidentally, August Mattson Post, American Legion, which sponsored the show, received slightly over $224.00, half of which is to go to the Chamber of Commerce.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the kindness and sympathy extended to us at the time of our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father. Especially are we grateful to those who sent spiritual or floral bouquets, to the American Legion, the Croatian society, the Holy Name society to Father Matt for his consoling words, to those who offered the services of their autos and to all others who by word or deed assisted us at this time. The memory of these kind acts will always remain with us.

Signed:
Mrs. Louis Burcar and Family

MARY WINS AGAIN—The "winnah" and still the champion is Mary Jean Malott of Anderson, Ind., formerly of Bloomer, Wis., who has held the women's title since she won it at

CANADIAN HAS
NARROW ESCAPE

Is Uninjured When Auto
Rolls South Of Here

Albert G. Harmon of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, had a fortunate escape from injury Wednesday when he lost control of his auto and it rolled over on Highway US 2-41 several miles south of Gladstone.

State police investigating learned that the right wheels of the Harmon auto had run off the pavement and when he attempted to bring the vehicle back onto the concrete the front wheel climbed all right but the rear wheel skidded along the edge throwing the auto into a roadside skid which caused it to roll onto its side.

Harmon was uninjured and the side of the auto was caved in.

It was towed to Gladstone and after having an oil refill, the lubricant having run out when the auto rolled, Harmon was able to continue on his way.

Lions Club Holds

Grace Grawey Bride
Of Matt Gasperich

Miss Grace Grawey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Grawey, 109 North 10th street, City, and Matthew Gasperich, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gasperich, Route 1, Gladstone, spoke their nuptial vows at a nine o'clock mass on Monday morning, July 5, at All Saints Catholic church with Rev. Fr. Matt LaViolette, celebrant.

The Junior choir sang the music of the mass and during the offertory, Gounod's "Ave Maria" was sung by Miss Pat Bolger. Miss Melanie DeHooghe was the organist.

The bride was escorted up the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a white satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and v-neckline with net flower inlays on the sleeves. The full hooped skirt which was caught up at the hemline in scallop style with net flower inlays fell into a long graceful train. Her sheer fingertip veil was attached to a white satin Juliet cap. She wore as her only jewelry a three strand pearl necklace and carried an arm bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Her only attendant, Miss Patricia McCauley, chose a pink marquisette floor length gown styled with an off the shoulder neckline and a full hooped skirt. Her pink shoulder length veil was attached to a wreath of flowers in her hair and she wore elbow length white lace fingerless gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, snapdragons and yellow and pink carnations.

The groom's attendant was Alfred Kinkella.

The bride's mother wore a black and white print dress with black accessories and the groom's mother was in green and white print with black accessories. Each had a corsage of pink and white carnations.

A wedding breakfast with covers laid for 45 guests was served at the bride's parental home and during the afternoon a reception, was held with over 60 guests attending. Roses and peonies were used in the home decorations and a three tiered wedding cake centered the serving table.

The newlyweds have left on a two weeks wedding trip through the Upper Peninsula.

They will make their home in Gladstone at 109 North 10th street. Both are employed at the Alger-Delta Co-op Elect. Ass'n.

Social Security
Man Here Every Other Monday

The Federal Social Security agency with headquarters at Escanaba, announces that every other Monday a representative of the office's itinerant service will be in Manistique to be of service to anyone having matters of social security to be attended to.

Gail Russell of Escanaba, will have charge of this service and maintain headquarters in the basement of the post office building. He will be there from 10:30 on until all matters on hand are attended to. His next visit will be on Monday, July 19.

Russell states that he is particularly anxious to impress upon all people who have arrived at their 65th birthday—whether they are employed or not or whether they are living on pension—that they should call at the social security office and register. Many people who would benefit through social security under such circumstance, do not seem to be aware of the advantages that are theirs. This he is very anxious to explain, he says.

Die of Starvation

Julius Chapman, local painter and decorator, has peace of mind again.

For a while he was fearful that, through no fault of his own, he had snuffed out the lives of a nest of birds, and the thought had depressed him.

It was while painting the front of Cliff's Market that he also repaired the large cornice beam above the store's sign. The cornice had become loose at the top and was leaning outward, so he pushed it back into place and bolted it snug against the building. Then he chanced to notice a small bird, its

Unpredictable Dodgers Have Won Six In Row; May Make 1st Division

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sports Writer

The unpredictable Brooklyn Dodgers were riding high today on the wings of a six-game winning streak—and threatening to catch the leaders before the month is out.

The latest Brooklyn victory march not only enhanced the Dodgers' chances to retain their National league championship, but may have halted, for the time being at least, rumors that Leo Durocher is on the way out as manager.

It is no secret that Durocher must make a good showing this year or quit.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers find themselves in the best position they've been all season. Last night's 4-3 victory in 11 innings over the Boston Braves at Ebbets field left them in fifth place, only a game behind the first division New York Giants. They trail the pace-setting Braves by six and a half games, but are only four games behind in the important losing column.

The Cleveland Indians maintained their slim 10-percentage point bulge on the Philadelphia Athletics in the American league race by trouncing the Chicago White Sox, 10-2. The A's also won their game, edging out the Yankees at New York, 4-3. Bob Feller hurled his ninth victory for the Tribe, pitching shutout ball after the first inning. The cellar-dwelling White Sox rapped Feller for two runs on three hits in the first inning.

Hank Majeski, Yankee castoff, was the big gun for the A's. The hard-hitting third baseman, walloped a home run and triple to drive in three runs against his former mates. Tommy Byrne was the victim.

Trailing 2-6, the Washington Senators suddenly came to life with a five-run rally in the top of the ninth to nip the Red Sox at Boston, 7-6. Manager Joe McCarthy they who started with Boo Ferriss, used five pitchers in a frantic attempt to halt the Nats.

Pittsburgh moved past St. Louis into second place in the National league by defeating the Cardinals, 2-1. The Pirates scored the tie-breaking run in the top of the ninth when Wally Westlake followed Ralph Kiner's double with a run-producing single. The Pirates, who boast a half length lead over the Cards, now trail the Braves by 2½ games.

Larry Jansen limited the Philadelphia Phillies to two hits in pitching the New York Giants to a 7-0 triumph. He had a no-hitter until Richie Ashburn scratched an infield hit in the seventh. Johnny Mize collected four hits off Curt Simmons.

Hopping off to a 5-0 lead in the first inning, the Reds went on to gain an easy 10-3 victory over the Cubs in Chicago. It was the only game played in the majors in daylight.

College football squads are very much disturbed by the new draft law, which may put them back in the stage where they had only 18-year-olds and disillusioned war veterans to carry on. From Penn State, a typical example, comes this word: "Of the 44 men invited to return for pre-season drills in September, only about a half-dozen are non-veterans." On the other hand Oklahoma U. reports: "In 1948 Oklahoma would lose about 20 percent of its effectiveness but wouldn't be hurt too badly on the starting team. In 1949 the Sooners would be hurt terrifically." You take your choice.

Cold Draft
Standings of 28 clubs in the Brooklyn organization, including "them bums," show that as of July 5 ten of them were leading their leagues and only four were lower than the Dodgers' sixth-place rating. . . . Incidentally the rise of the Pueblo Dodgers in the Western league can be attributed largely to the hitting streak Bob Wakefield started as soon as he joined the club from the U. of Illinois. . . . The Hambletonian, prize race for three-year old trotters, should be worth more than $60,000 this year. . . . although there have been vigorous denials from the Brooklyn organization, we keep hearing that the real trouble is that the guys who found they could win pennants under Burt Shotton's gentle handling are inclined to resent Leo Durocher's rough and tumble methods.

Cleaning the Cuff
Herb Baskin, the Illinois lad who has qualified for the 800 and 1,500 meters in the Olympic trials, can't decide which event to tackle. Off last week's A.A.U. meet, Herb figures either he or Wisconsin's Don Gehrmann could have taken Gil Dodds if they'd been within five yards of the lead on the last turn. . . . But they weren't. . . . When Notre Dame's Marty Wendell received the Hering award as the "best blocking guard" at the end of Notre Dame's spring grid practice, a type error in the South Bend newspaper made it "best looking guard" . . . Naturally his teammates now call Marty "Cutie."

Mikulich, Partner Ousted in Western Tennis Tournament
Indianapolis, July 8 (AP)—Two of the country's more promising young players were on the sidelines today going into the fourth day of the western tennis championships at the Woodstock club. Unneeded Saul of Los Angeles, former University of Southern California basketball star, yesterday eliminated Herbert (Buddy) Behrens of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., 1947 national junior champion, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4. Behrens was seeded No. 4.

Third-seeded Irvin Dorfman of New York was within a point of losing to get past Tom Molloy, a veteran of Cincinnati but he finally beat the youngster, 5-7, 7-5, 6-4.

Behrens had upset Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles in Cincinnati's tri-state tournament last week.

Gonzales, seeded No. 1 in the western, also needed an extra set yesterday to get past Tom Molloy, of New Orleans, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3.

Andy Paton and Bill Mikulich of Ann Arbor, Mich., were eliminated from the doubles competition by Gonzales and Behrens, 6-1, 6-2.

Americans Expect To Take 10 Firsts In Olympic Track
Evanston, Ill., July 8 (AP)—Selection of the American Olympic track team counted on to win ten firsts at London starts tomorrow at 6 p. m. EST. In Northwestern University's Dyche stadium and concludes Saturday afternoon.

There was increasing confidence on all hands. With one notable exception, the 200 athletes have come this far without serious injuries. Even Gil Dodds, best of the distance men who has a strained Achilles tendon in his left leg, is rounding back into shape.

Next Monday the track squad of about 65 men will assemble in New York for "processing" before the S. S. America sails on Wednesday with most of the American team. The exact number in track depends on how many spares are carried to round out the sprint and 1,600 meter relay teams.

The time between selection of the team and sailing is so limited that a tailor must be taken on the ship to fit the snappy blue and white parade uniforms.

Lippy Hasn't Changed A Bit, Bums Report

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
Princeton, N. J., July 8 (AP)—

Princeton and Yale oarsmen were involved in a slight mixup in the Olympic tryouts yesterday — the result of someone straying off the course with a few miles of lake available to row in. The referees called a halt after the two shells nearly collided, and ordered a fresh start.

Football Coach Charley Caldwell turned up in the press tent during the proceedings and someone asked him how he'd like a football official who called things off because of blocking on a long run. Caldwell immediately recalled the National Collegiate track championship the other day. "Someone should have done that in the NCAA 500 meters," he suggested. "Ronald Wittich almost had his shoes torn off on the first run, but he had to run."

College football squads are very much disturbed by the new draft law, which may put them back in the stage where they had only 18-year-olds and disillusioned war veterans to carry on. ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Off the cuff: Hal Newhouse, who seems to be thriving on his new workhorse diet with the Detroit Tigers, is the only Michigan player on the American and National league all-star squads. . . . As might be expected, California and New York lead with seven each. . . . And Illinois, Pennsylvania and Missouri are next with five each. . . . The rest are well scattered—no other state contributing as much as three or four each—Ken Keltner, Cleveland belter from Wisconsin, and Johnny Schmitz, effective Chicago Cub hurler from Wausau, are the only two representatives from the Badger state on the all-star roster.

Strange as it may seem, the southwestern states which have supplied many colorful characters to big league baseball are not very well represented among this year's all-stars. . . . Remember such stars as Carl Hubbell and Pepper Martin of Oklahoma and Schoolboy Rowe of Arkansas? . . . This season Oklahoma contributes only Harry Breechen, of Ada, Cardinal hurler, and Arkansas contributes only Detroit's George Kell and Boston's Johnny Sain. . . . Don't let this get around, but the proud state of Texas where the stars are big and bright at night deep in the heart of it is not represented!

Just for the record, Jerome Deloria is grateful to the union at the Escanaba Paper company for the substantial monetary contribution which enabled the city recreation department to purchase equipment for the junior baseball program. . . . "It really was a big help and came just in time because we didn't have a baseball to play with," he said. . . . The youngsters appreciate it, too.

Managers of out-of-town junior teams desiring home-and-home games with Escanaba junior baseball teams are asked to write to Deloria at the city recreation department. . . . The age groups are 5-10, 11-13 and 14-17. . . . The manager of the VFW junior team in Marquette is seeking a home-and-home series, Jerome.

Today's thought: Something should be worked out with all the twelfth grade secretaries in this area to enable us to publish the results each week. . . . Publishing the lengthy pairings without following up with the results—at least—team results and a few highlights—always strikes us as a bit ridiculous. . . . Who's ahead at Highland, at Gladstone, at Manistique, at the Escanaba course? . . . Does anybody know?

Big League All-Stars Battle Next Tuesday

Chicago, July 8 (AP)—The sides were chosen for the major league's 15th all-star game at St. Louis Tuesday with the completion to day of the dominating American league's full squad.

The hot-shots from the junior circuit, 2-1 winners at Wrigley Field in Chicago last year, will be slugging for their 11th decision over the National leagues.

Manager Bucky Harris rounded out his 25-player American roster by nominating eight pitchers and nine replacements for the starters named at the other eight positions in a nation-wide poll of fan mail.

The National league's squad was marshalled to full battle size yesterday by Manager Leo Durocher, who elected only six pitchers, two under par for the all-star course. Brooklyn's Lippy took up the slack by picking four third basemen instead of the customary pair.

Pilot Harris' own New York Yankees grabbed the most American all-star berths, six, including
